

OCIC, in collaboration with Canada World Youth, CESO, Cuso International and Youth Challenge International invite you to the Toronto

IDW 2014 Wrap-Up Party!

Friday, February 7, 2014
6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.
at the Centre for Social Innovation – Annex
(720 Bathurst St., Toronto)

Wrap-up International Development Week 2014 with a crowd of planet loving volunteers, NGO professionals, award-winning Global Changemakers, friends and family at this IDW 2014 “Making a Difference”-themed Toronto Development Drinks party!

There will be opportunities for speed networking, learning more about the evenings’ hosts, and to celebrate the efforts of OCIC’s six young Global Changemaker 2014 award recipients. Hors’ d’oeuvres will be on offer, and a cash bar will be open.

All are welcome. As space is limited, please RSVP here. For more information, email admin@ocic.on.ca

The Ontario Council for International Cooperation is an expanding community of Ontario-based international development and global education organizations, and individual associate members, working globally for social justice.

Canada World Youth offers world-renowned international volunteer programs to youth from Canada and abroad who, through their participation in community-driven development projects, acquire the leadership skills that allow them to become agents of change.

CESO is one of Canada’s leading volunteer-based development organizations. Since 1967, through partnership and the dedication of our volunteers who are highly skilled and experienced in their professions, we have completed more than 46,000 assignments focused on improving the economic and social well-being of peoples across Canada and in more than 120 countries.

Cuso International is an international development organization that works to reduce poverty and inequality through the efforts of skilled volunteers. Each year, we place hundreds of professionals in developing countries in Africa, Asia, the Caribbean and Latin America. These volunteers share their knowledge, skills and experience to collaborate on health, education, social justice and sustainability projects that have real development impact and create lasting social change.

Youth Challenge International is a leading global youth development organization that promotes youth innovation to drive positive change. Building on 25 years of experience, YCI’s programs are designed to meet the needs of youth affected by poverty through four integrated sectors: livelihoods, health, leadership and the environment. We engage youth in creating solutions to the challenges they face. YCI incorporates youth development, volunteerism and partnership into all that we do.
