

BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Looking Back and Moving Forward

Josiah Henson: From Slave to Saviour

Join us for this one-person theatre production starring Cassel Miles, which tells the story of Josiah Henson - a driven man who overcame incredible odds to escape from slavery and improve the lives of hundreds of freedmen throughout his long life.

The performance will be followed by a question and answer period.

LAUNCH

Wednesday, February 5, 2020

12:30 pm - 4:00 pm

Central YMCA - 20 Grosvenor Street
To register, email rsvp@ymcagta.org

Explicit Language Warning: This one-man play, shared from the perspective of Josiah Henson, includes the use of racial slurs that were used against Black communities during slavery. The language is historically accurate and considered vital to the telling of this story.